

Curriculum vitae – Roland Schüle

Born: October 16, 1957 in Neuenstadt, Germany
Nationality: German
Social status: married, 2 children

Education:

1977 High school diploma (Abitur), Neckarsulm, Germany
1977 - 1980 Study of Chemistry, University of Kiel,
1980 - 1985 Study of Biochemistry, University of Tübingen

Scientific education and appointments:

1985 - 1988 Ph.D. work supervised by Rainer Renkawitz, Max-Planck-Institute for Biochemistry, Martinsried
1988 - 1991 Postdoc in the lab of Ronald M. Evans, The Salk Institute, La Jolla, USA.
1991 - 1993 Group leader, Preclinical Research Sandoz Ltd, Basle, Switzerland
1993 - 1999 Group leader, Tumor Biology Center, University of Freiburg,
1997 Habilitation, University of Freiburg, Department of Prof. Albrecht Sippel
1999 - 2004 Associate Professor (C3), Womens Hospital, University of Freiburg,
2005 - Full Professor (W3) and Director, Center for Clinical Research, University of Freiburg

Scientific honors:

1988 EMBO Long Term Fellowship
1988 - 1991 Long Term Postdoctoral Fellowship of the DFG
1991 American Cancer Society Senior Fellowship
2004 Invitation for full professor (C4-Ruf) Dept. of Genetics, University of Konstanz; denied
2004 Invitation for full professor (C4-Ruf) Dept. of Biochemistry, University of Jena; denied
2004 Invitation for full professor (C4-Ruf) Dept. of Biochemistry, RWTH Aachen; denied